I request a refund on my American Express Account Number [REDACTED] 1006 (expiration date: 09/2010) for a charge dated December 28, 2007 in the amount of $295.00. I paid this fee in response to a call from the PTO when my partner was absent from the office saying the charge was necessary to prevent abandonment of a patent application under our docket number RLA3.093, U.S. Serial No. 10/767,155.

This particular application had an Office Action dated 07/10/2007 to which my partner responded on 12/10/2007. The response included payment for a two month extension of time that was charged to my partner's business card [REDACTED] 1843 in the amount of $230.00 which was posted to that card on 12/11/2007. Attached hereto is an Auto-Reply Facsimile Transmission for the Certificate of Transmission indicating that Amendment A, the Petition for Extension of Time and PO form PTO-2038 were received by the PTO on 12/20/2007, which means that all that was needed was a two month extension of time.

Sincerely,

Patrick Bright
